Hi this is Jim Garrison with the Humboldt County Historical Society.

Our mission is to protect collections that are relevant to the study of local history, and to forge connections between our local community and the rich history that shapes lives today.

Our research center and archive exists as a resource to the public and researchers may find us at the corner of 8th and H streets in Eureka, every Wednesday through Friday.

A repository for local historical research materials, our archive contains thousands of photographs, hundreds of maps, and indexes to vital, criminal, and census records.

You can find out more about the Historical Society by visiting our website at humboldthistory.org.

New digital research materials are made available, through our website, each quarter.

Become a member today to support the work we do and gain access to our growing digital archive!

Our new digital archive includes digitized 8mm film clips of Eureka street scenes from the 1950s; original California Highways and Public Works planning maps and much more!

You can always find out what we're up to by following the Humboldt County Historical Society on Facebook, or checking the Events page on our website.

The next Historical Society event will feature a talk by Jerry Rohde at the Humboldt County Library in Eureka. As a celebration of the Save the Redwoods League centennial, local Historian and author, Jerry Rohde will describe pivotal events that were part of the movement's early history. We'll learn how a trio of timely telegrams helped save the world's most famous grove of redwoods, how a pair of floods caused an entire town to become part of a state redwood park, and we'll look at some of the most striking scenery to be found anywhere. Presentations in our library lecture series are always FREE! Come early to claim your seat. The presentation will begin at 1pm on Saturday, October 6th.

We are also always looking for student interns and community volunteers. If you are interested in helping out at the Historical Society – please send me an email at collections@humboldthistory.org. Again, that's C-O-L-L-E-C-T-I-O-N-S @humboldthistory.org.
